

Mix liquid oil for animal feeding

Description

The product in question is presented as light green liquid in 250 ml bottles. It can be used as effective alternative for antibiotics in case of bacterial and viral infections of poultry, bovine, ovine and caprine animals.

It is a mixture of essential oils dissolved in vinegar which contains:

- 0.5% thyme oil;
- 2% rosemary oil;
- 2% oregano oil;
- 3% garlic oil;
- 3% eucalyptus oil; and
- 89.5% vinegar as complement.

No restrictions as to its use and intake can be administered in all periods of animal life. It is intended to boost the animal's body defence mechanisms, to increase weight gain. Can be mixed with water and dosage varies according to animal species and weight.

Heading under consideration: 30.04 or 23.09

It is to be noted that the scope of heading 30.04 is restricted to medicinal products presented in measured doses, which contain a sufficient quantity of an active substance with a curative or prophylactic properties against a particular disease or ailment.

The above product is a mixture of essential oils, being a preparation used directly for animal feeding and classifiable in heading 23.09, subheading 2309.90.99 by application of GIRs 1 and 6.

(Source: WCO members' website Ref: 19NL0006 - JC)