

To clarify the term “hinged containers” as it appears in Chapter 39

Hinged containers may also be known as clamshell containers. They are a one-piece container consisting of two halves joined by a non-detachable hinge.

They are generally used to pack food items such as fruits, vegetables, etc.