

Classification of Softeners used for treating textiles of heading 38.09

Heading 38.09 covers : “Finishing agents, dye carriers to accelerate the dyeing or fixing of dyestuffs and other products and preparations (for example, dressings and mordants), of a kind used in the textile, paper, leather or like industries, not elsewhere specified or included”

The heading covers a wide range of products and preparations, of a kind generally used during processing or finishing in the above mentioned industries, not specified or included elsewhere in the Nomenclature.

The composition and presentation of products intended to be used in the textile industry and presented for industrial use or for domestic use are also included.

E.g textile softener